

Advertisement under project “Preparation of Road Map for Ecological Restoration Work in NCL Coalmines at Singrauli, MP” for Subject expert personnel

Interested academicians/professionals/practitioners /retd. personnel are invited to contribute as a subject expert for the “Preparation of Road Map for Ecological Restoration Work in NCL Coalmines at Singrauli, MP”. The responsibility will include supervision in field survey, integration of all the field data and preparation of report of above mentioned project being implemented by ECC&FI under the funding from NCL, Singrauli. The subject expert would be provided necessary infrastructure with remuneration of 50,000 per month. The initial tenure of the engagement will be for six month period, however if required it may be extended. The expert will be entitled to avail travelling, boarding and lodging charges as per the entitled of group A officer during field visit. The details of the assignment are given below

S. No.	Deliverable	Role and tenure	Required qualification
	Frame work for the preparation of roadmap of ecological restoration work of Coalmines of NCL	Supervision in field survey and collection of related field data, their summarization, and preparation of final printable document by the end of project period (Six month period)	Ph.D degree in Biological Sciences preferably in Botany/Forestry/ Environment Science. More than 15-20 years field experience on restoration of mined out areas Professional knowledge of Mined land restoration and preparation of roadmap for restoration

Interested and eligible experts are requested to send their applications and their Curricula Vitae/Resume to Head Ecology, Climate Change & Forest Influence Division (head_ecology@icfre.org) either by post or by email latest by dated 3rd October, 2017.

Terms and conditions

1. The expert will facilitate and assist the project team in conducting the field survey/data collection and preparation of the project report.
2. The expert should be retired scientist with experience of more than 15-20 years in restoration of mined areas preferably working experience in coal mined out areas.
3. The expert should have also past experience in preparation of roadmap of ecological restoration of coal mined out areas
4. The expert will be entitled to avail travelling, boarding and lodging charges as per the entitled of group A officer for field visits.

Head
Ecology, Climate Change & Forest Influence Division
Forest Research Institute, P.O. New Forest, Dehradun 248006 (Uttarakhand)
Phone: 0135-2224477